

MEMBERSHIP

Membership in the 14ers club is considered an honor and is acknowledged for those who have reached a milestone in their participation with RMA.

Members of the 14ers club shall be committed to advancing the goals of RMA, and in addition be committed to the promotion of hospitality, mentorship, communication and comradeship within the region.

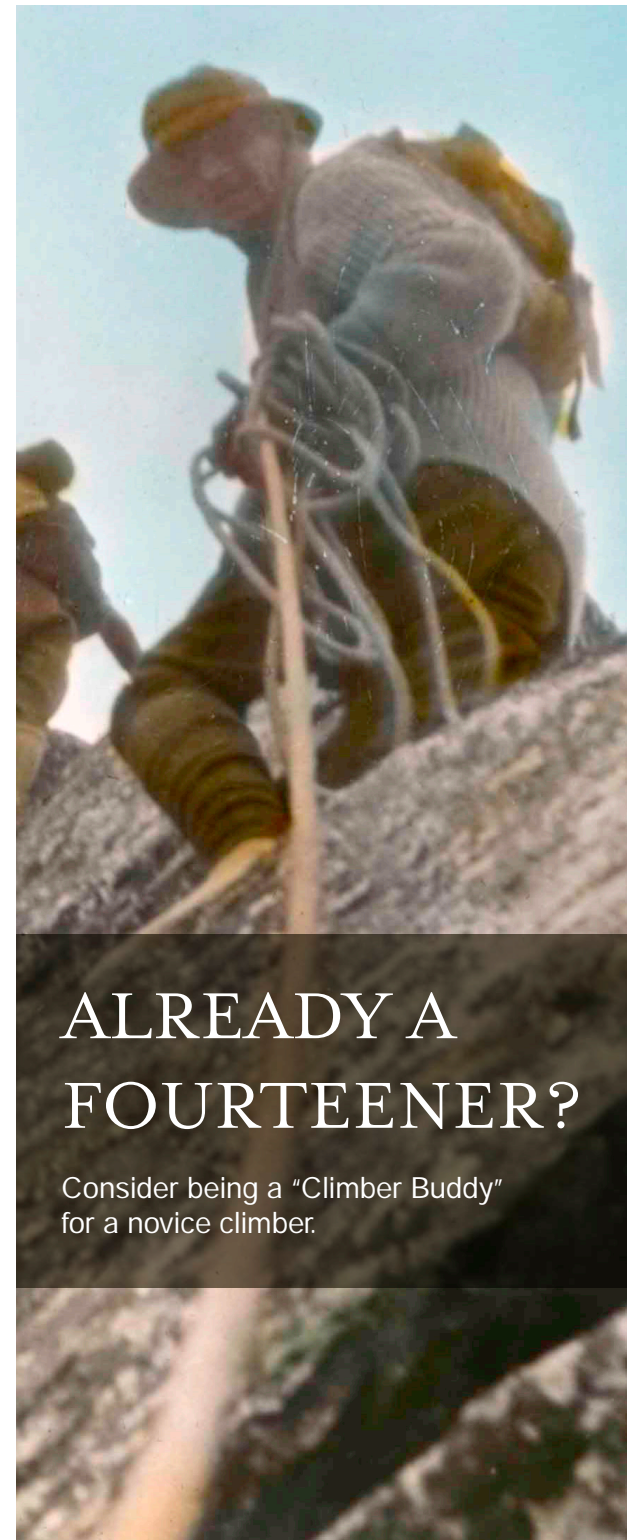

ELIGIBILITY

To become a member of the 14ers Club, RMA members must climb 14 peaks. Peaks consist of combinations of RMA and APPA service, education, or recognition.

To find out more about eligibility, please visit the Fourteeners Club link on the RMA website at <http://rma.appa.org> or

Contact Lead Climber:
John P. Morris, PE.
john.morris@colorado.edu
Univ of Colorado Boulder
UCB 053
Boulder, CO 80309-0053
(303) 735-0716

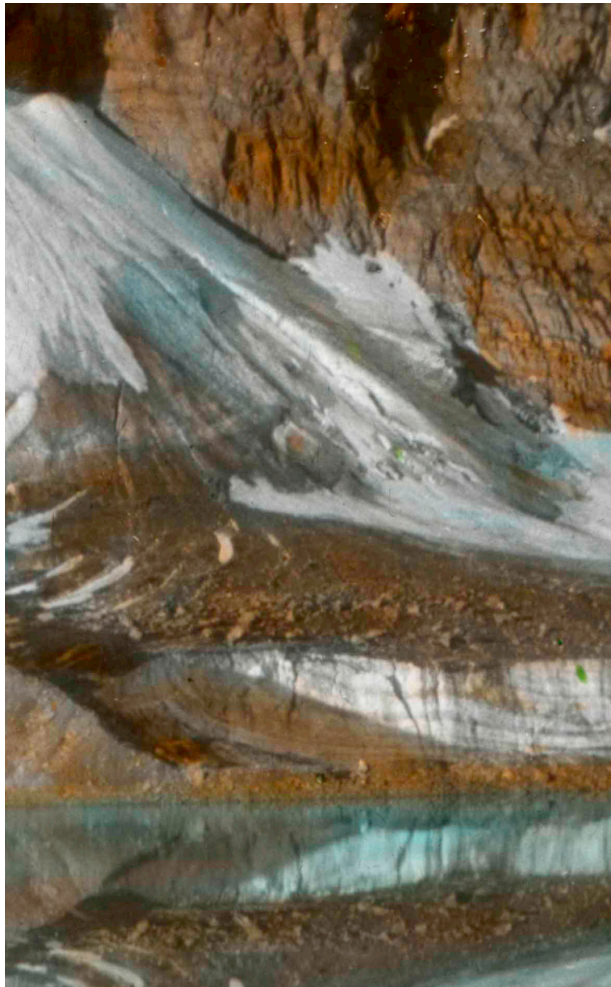

ALREADY A FOURTEENER?

Consider being a "Climber Buddy"
for a novice climber.

PURPOSE

- Promote a recognition program for individuals within RMA who aspire to greater heights.
- Support RMA in its mission to elevate the leadership and influence of facilities professionals.
- Recruit and mentor others to prepare for and fulfill leadership roles at their own institutions, within RMA and within APPA.

CLUB MEMEBERS

Initiants at 2008 Annual Meeting Park City Charter Members

John P.Morris, University of Colorado at Boulder
Eakle Barfield, Montana Sate University
Harvey Chace, University of New Mexico (Retired)
Tommy Moss, Colorado State University (Retired)
Wayne White, Utah State University (Retired)

Initiants at 2009 Annual Meeting Tucson, AZ

Craig Bohn, University of Utah
Brian Nielson, University of Utah
Erik van de Boogaard, Adams State College
Nancy Hurt, Colorado State University
Dave Button, University of Regina
Shawna Rowley, Weber State University
Viron Lynch, Weber State University
Jeff Butler, Montana State University
Polly Pinney, Arizona StateUniversity (Honorary)
Lander Medlin, APPA (Honorary)

Initiants at the 2010 Annual Meeting Coeur'd Alene, ID

Shari Philpot, University of Colorado at Boulder
Douglas Christensen, Brigham Young Univeristy
Luis Rocha, University of Arizona
Greg Wiens, Athabasca University
Mary Vosevich, University of New Mexico
Joseph Metzger, Arizona State University
Christopher Kopach, University of Arizona
Kevin Hansen, Weber State University
Darrel Meyer, Metropolitan Community College
KC (Honorary)

