ARTICLE I – NAME

1. The official name of this organization shall be: Rocky Mountain APPA hereinafter referred to as RMA.

ARTICLE II – PURPOSE

1. The purpose of RMA is to promote interest in the planning, construction, care, operation, functionality, and extended useful life of facilities used by universities, colleges and all other institutions of education within the region; to promote professional standards among those engaged in this work; to aid and supplement the work of APPA; and to engage in such activities as may be needed to fulfill the purposes and objectives of RMA.
2. RMA is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law). No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to its directors, officers, other private individuals, or organizations organized and operated for profit (except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes stated above). No part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or the publishing or distributing of statements for any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision herein, the organization shall not carry on any activities not permitted:
 - a. By an organization exempt from federal Income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or applicable Canadian or Mexican laws and regulations.
 - b. By an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or applicable Canadian or Mexican laws or regulations.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

1. Classification for Membership – Membership in RMA shall be open to universities and colleges, or institutions of education, all branches of such institutions, and other educational institutions specifically including K-12 Schools, Libraries, and Museums who have a separate and distinct physical plant, buildings and grounds, or facilities organization in the following states: Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, New Mexico, Utah, and Wyoming, the provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan, and the Northwest Territories of Canada, and the states of Chihuahua, Durango, Nayarit, Sinaloa, Sonora in Mexico. Qualified institutions from states, provinces or countries adjoining any of the above are also eligible for membership. This clause does not apply to institutions already affiliated with RMA.

2. Educational Institution Members – Applicants from institutions of education, who can meet the following criteria, will be eligible for membership in RMA.
 - a. To be considered an Education Institution Member the institution must have an independent facilities management organization, or must maintain control over the position of a principal administrator in direct charge of the facilities management organization for such institution.
 - b. Types of Educational Institution Members include:
 - i. Institutions of Higher Education which require at least two years of academic credit for graduation and which have been legally granted the authority to award degrees.
 - ii. Other Post-Secondary Education Providers.
 - iii. Other Educational Institutions specifically including K-12 Schools, Libraries, and Museums.
 - iv. University or College Systems. Eligibility for separate educational institution membership when the university or college system employs a facilities officer who consults or advises other facilities officers in charge of facilities management efforts at two or more institutions operating under the university or college system. Nothing herein shall be interpreted as denying any qualified institution of higher education regular membership in RMA solely for the reason that a system of colleges and universities of which it is a member is itself a member of RMA.
3. Institutional Membership – Each member institution is entitled to an unlimited number of regular members. One regular member must be the chief facilities officer of the member institution responsible for the physical plant, buildings and grounds, or facilities operations, or a member of the leadership team of the chief facilities officer. ARTICLE VI – FOURTEENERS MENTORING PROGRAM

The Rocky Mountains are part of the North American Cordillera, which stretches 3,000 miles from Alaska through western Canada and the United States into northern Mexico. The centerpieces of this dramatic uplift are the 54 peaks over 14,000 feet, or "Fourteeners" as they are affectionately referred to by climbers.

1. Purpose - The purpose of the Fourteeners Mentoring Program (a.k.a. 14ers Program) is to:
 - a. Promote a recognition program for individuals within RMA who aspire to greater heights.
 - b. Support RMA in its mission to "promote and develop the leadership capabilities of the higher education facilities management professional by providing timely opportunity for communications, partnerships, and education."
 - c. Recruit and mentor others to prepare for and fulfill leadership roles at their own institutions, within RMA and within APPA International.
2. Membership – Membership in the 14ers Program is considered an honor and is acknowledged for those who have reached a milestone in their participation with RMA. Membership in the 14ers Program is open to all RMA members who are in good standing and meet the longevity, participation and service requirements. Members of the 14ers Program shall be committed to advancing the goals of RMA, and in addition be committed to the promotion of hospitality, communication and comradeship within the region.
3. Eligibility for Membership - To become a member of the 14ers Program RMA members must climb fourteen (14) peaks. Criteria for eligibility must be approved by the Board of Directors and be available to all RMA members.

ARTICLE VII – REVISIONS

Any regular or affiliate member may recommend a change or amendment to these bylaws. Requests for considerations for changes to the bylaws must be submitted in electronic format to the RMA Board of Directors.

Proposed bylaw amendments or changes must be published on the RMA website, or through other written means of communication (including electronic media) made available to all regular members of RMA, no less than 30 days before a vote is scheduled to be taken.

These bylaws of RMA may be amended or revised by a three-fourth (3/4) affirmative vote of eligible voting member institutions that submit a vote.

Voting Rights. Each Educational Institution and Affiliate Member of the Association (except in the case where an institution's physical plant or facilities department holds current RMA Institutional membership) shall be entitled to one vote on all matters of the Association requiring votes. Votes may be cast at meetings of the membership or by mail or electronic ballot, as determined by the Board of Directors. The Institutional Representative is responsible for approving or designating his or her proxy.

If deemed necessary by the board of directors, the RMA President may require each member institution's authorized electronic voting member to register with the secretary prior to the conduct of business.

Administrative edits to these Bylaws of RMA may be amended, altered, changed, added to, deleted from, or repealed by the affirmative vote of the majority of the RMA Board of Directors on behalf of the membership.
